The objective of the program was to make students aware of the importance of the Indian native trees. Shri S. J. Vekariya, an Assistant Marketing Manager of GNFC, and Shri Vatsal Thakkar with his group of Grow Native Green Forum were invited as guest speakers. The students were sensitized and motivated to grow more and more native trees in their locales. An exhibition was organized in which various Neem products and Native Trees were displayed. Shri S. J. Vekariya spoke on Neem Trees and its medicinal value in life. He started his lecture with the introduction of GNFC. He briefed the role of GNFC in empowering less-privileged strata of society especially rural areas by providing them opportunity to sell Neem fruits for manufacturing various Neem products. He advocated the use of Neem and its products to remain healthy in life. He also encouraged and appealed students to grow Neem trees if they have land. He said that the students can generate income by selling various parts of the Neem tree. This way as responsible citizens the students can contribute to the conservation of Native Trees. Shri Jinjala of Grow Native Green Forum elaborately spoke on the importance of Native Trees like Banyan, Peepal, Mango etc. He said that birds take shelter only on native trees so we should promote more and more native trees in our country. He said that India has a rich environmental history and nature was revered with great faith in ancient India. He appealed the students to retrieve our ancient heritage and value native trees. In the end of his lecture, he interacted with the students and appealed them to spread the message of Grow Native Green Forum everywhere by encouraging the society to grow more and more native trees. |

Prof. Mahesh C. Naik
Dr. Mahavirsinh. D. Gohil
Dr. Radha S. Gautam

S. B. Garda College, Navsari celebrated the 150th birth anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi on 2nd October 2018. The programme began with the Prabhat Pheri which started from the college campus and went to Fuwara Circle.. The college students along with NCC cadets and NSS volunteers joined the Prabhat Pheri with great enthusiasm. The students were holding banners conveying the messages of cleanliness and environmental awareness. At Fuwara Circle Prof. Ramesh P. Patel, the vice-principal, along with other staff members paid tribute to Mahatma Gandhi by garlanding the statue of Mahatma Gandhi with the Suttar Ki Atti and offered flowers. All teaching as well as non-teaching staff joined the Prabhat Pheri.

After the Prabhat pheri everyone assembled in the library hall. Dr. Mahavirsinh Gohil welcomed all and spoke on the occasion. Afterwards everybody present joined in Sarv Dharm Prathana. Gandhi's most favourite songs were sung by Dhara Shah (T.Y.B.A.) and Dipali Randive (T.Y.B.A.). Arif Mohammand, a student of T.Y.B.com. spoke on the various facets of Mahatma Gandhi's life. Speaking on the occasion Prof. Mahesh bhai Naik, NSS programme officer, emphasized the relevance of Gandhian thought in the contemporary context. The event ended with Gandhi's famous devotional song Raghupati Raghav Rajaram.

A REPORT ON SWACHH BHARAT SUMMER INTERNSHIP PROGRAMME, JUNE-JULY, 2018

Prof. Mahesh C. Naik
Dr. Mahavirsinh. D. Gohil
Dr. Radha S. Gautam

As per the directives of the Government and as a part of Swachh Bharat Summer Internship-2018 programme, the internship was undertaken by NSS volunteers of S. B. Garda College under the guidance of Prof. Mahash C. Naik, Dr. Mahavirsinh. D. Gohil and Dr. Radha S. Gautam in Maroli, Mahuvar, Chhinam and Kadoli. The names of twenty five students were registered for this internship programme (List Attached). Three teams were constituted under the leadership of Mr. Hans AbuSufiyan M., Mr. Patel Arif E. and Ms. Desai Chitra R. to facilitate the whole procedure.

Cleanliness/ sanitation related information was communicated to people in Maroli, Mahuvar, Kadoli and Chhinam villages. More than 2000 people were sensitized. A Swachhata survey of 725 houses was conducted in the villages by using questionnaire method. Slums and under-privileged sections of the villages were the targeted areas. Door to door visits were accomplished by NSS volunteers in which local youths and past students of the Garda college also joined with great enthusiasm. People were given information regarding sanitation and cleanliness.

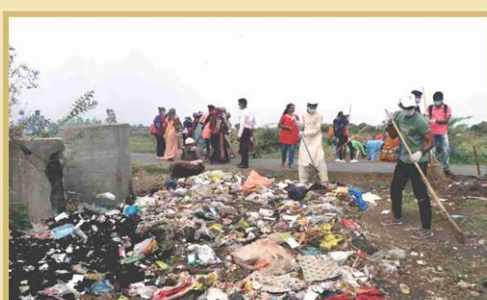

During the whole campaign the Sarpanchshri of Maroli & Mahuvar, Mr. Ajaybhai Patel remained present with his team. Mrs. Anitaben Rathod also accompanied the team. Streets, Drain, roads, back alleys were cleaned, garbage was collected and burnt.

This programme served multifold purposes. Along with the cleanliness campaign students could connect to the village community and could understand their socio-economic problems. Through this survey students were able to know the position of the sanitary system functioning in these villages.
